

A PROFILE
THE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
103RD CONGRESS

The Republican Policy Committee, chaired by Henry Hyde of Illinois, serves as the official forum for the consideration of Republican policy positions in the House.

The Policy Chairman:

- Meets with Committee and Subcommittee Ranking Members and relevant task forces to determine the course of issues designated as Leadership issues.
- Monitors progress on designated issues in the Senate with respect to a timetable for action, policy development and coordination with the House in concert with the Republican Leader.
- Monitors activities within the Administration on designated issues in concert with the Republican Leader.
- Conducts policy meetings on a need basis to air views on issues of concern to the Conference.
- Issues policy statements, critiques and perspectives on issues and disseminates them statements to the Members and the press.
- Considers resolutions or other matters brought before the Republican Conference and referred to the Policy Committee and reports findings on such subjects to the Leadership and the Conference.